FESTIVAL POLICIES:

- The Piedmont Park Arts Festival is a juried event. The Festival committee reserves the right to refuse exhibition of work not consistent with the quality and cohesiveness of submitted photos. Artists that do not comply with the Festival rules and regulations may be asked to leave immediately and will not be eligible for a refund.
- All work must be original and handcrafted unless specifically stated and approved. The work sold in the Festival must be of the same nature and quality as the images submitted for jurying. The Festival management reserves the right to request the removal of any work that differs from images submitted and accepted, as well as any inappropriate work or display.
- Reproductions must be clearly identified as such. Browse bins may occupy only minimal space and must be aesthetically pleasing and not obstruct patron flow. All artwork displayed must be for sale.
- Artists may show work only in categories approved by the Jury. All work exhibited must be of the quality and type that is shown in images juried.
- Artists must be present with their work for the duration of the Festival. No commercial agents, dealers or salespeople may operate the artist's booth.
- Artist's booth must be open on time and close on time. Failure to comply may result in being removed from the event.
- Artists are responsible for collecting and paying the applicable Atlanta Sales tax (8%) to the Georgia Department of Revenue.
